The W.S.C.S. met at the church for the May program. We opened by singing, "I Love To Tell the Story," followed by prayer by Mrs. Rucker. We enjoyed a duet by Misses Sharon Parsons and Neva Jo Fennell. A reading, "The Indisputable Fact that God Lives" was given by the spiritual life leader, Miss Emma Yates, who was program chairman, introduced Miss Jane Bristow, who is a representative of the American Bible Society. She showed a film "How David Got His Bible." She also told many interesting and challenging facts concerning the distribution of Bibles by the ABS, which is celebrating 150 years since its founding. Some of these pertinent facts follow: Many illiterates are learning to read today. What will they read? Communists are spending large sums to spread their books among the new literates who are hungry for reading materials. Do Christians spend proportionately to spread the Gospel? The Bible society prints the Bible or parts of it in 1316 languages and dialects. There are still 1000 dialects that have no portion in print. Of course some have no written language and the translator must first reduce the spoken word to a printable form. A Buddhist read the Bible because he could not sleep, to find comfort, and thus became a Christian. If we believe in Jesus and all of his promises, let us help in spreading the Gospel to the whole world.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Losey enjoyed having her sister, Mrs. Ora Stone, of Covington, as a guest for several days. She returned home Wednesday when her daughter, Mrs. Hazel Pickett, came for her.

Our sympathy goes out to the family of Linden Hoffman, who passed away May 15. Though reared in this community, he had lived in Newport for many years. Survivors are Mrs. Leontine Stephens of Independence, and Nelson Hoffman of this neighborhood, also a host of nephews, nieces and cousins.

Mrs. Stella Richardson enjoyed the company of several callers recently. Among them were Mrs. C. Riegler and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Baines, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cummins, Mrs. Dawson Losey and Mr. and Mrs. Omer Lucas.

Quite a number of the friends and neighbors of Miss Janet Shearer and Robert E. Rich attended their wedding on May 14, at First Methodist Church, Covington. It was beautiful and impressive. Everyone enjoyed the reception which followed at the YMCA. The very best wishes for a long, useful and happy life followed them as they departed on a short trip.

Mrs. Robert Bach, who has been taking treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital, seems to be improving. Let us pray that she makes a complete recovery.

A letter received this week from Mrs. Albert Gilligan, reports that both she and her husband are feeling better. That is good news. Mr. and Mrs. Omer Lucas received a letter from Omer Jr. to the effect that he is fine and counting the days until he returns from Viet Nam in October.

A pretty bad collision of two cars took place near Dr. Bieber's residence near here in which one car was turned over on its side, but luckily no one was injured, which seems almost a miracle as one car held seven children. We did not learn the names of these folks as we just noticed it in passing by at the time.

Bide-A-Wee Farm has five new calves and one baby pony. Now the question is, which is the most valuable... a toss-up, I would say. Looks like the berry and fruit crops were doomed by the cold spell, but black, dew and raspberries are OK.

Glad to report Mr. Matthews much better, and my neighbors, Duke Belew and wife have returned from the winter in Florida.

It seems as though this rainy spell is going on indefinitely, so that most of the gardens look just as they did in January. An epidemic of "waititis" has struck us and old "Doctor Sunshine" has his job cut out for him as soon as he is able to be up and about, which we hope will be soon.

Amity Baptist Church has just concluded a very inspiring and successful revival meeting. Sorry to hear that Mrs. Delilah Swinford, both of Mrs. John W. Shaw, is not at all well at this writing.

A statement was made in this column several weeks ago that one of our prominent citizens was retiring and planning a trip to Germany. It seems that this was only partly correct... the trip to Germany is being planned, but the retiring part was in error... very sorry... excuse please!
