Flonnie Edrington, Reporter

Mrs. Flossie Greenwell spent from Saturday until Wednesday with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hamilton, and children.

Mrs. Queenie Blackwell spent last week with Mrs. Allie Chandler. Mr. and Mrs. Corbet Davis and two children spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents in the mountains.

Miss Anna Rose Gibbons who was killed by a freight train on the Southern Railroad, on Sunday morning, had funeral services on Wednesday morning at the Hamilton Funeral Home, with burial by her father in New Bethel Cemetery. We extend our sympathy to her mother, brother and sisters in their sorrow and other relatives and friends. The other girl, who was wounded, still remains very ill in St. Elizabeth Hospital. Later, we learned she passed away Saturday night.

We extend our sympathy to the Elam boy's relatives who was also killed in the same wreck. His funeral was held from Mt. Zion Church, Tuesday, near West Liberty, Ky.

Tom Carr still remains quite ill. We hope he gets better soon.

Mrs. Kate Reed was calling on Mrs. Allie Chandler, Friday.

The Wyona King Circle of New Bethel Church will meet March 21 at 1:30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Theora Locke. Let every member that can be present for we miss those who do not attend.

Mrs. Queenie Blackwell was calling on Mrs. Helen Chipman on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lillie Cooke and Mrs. Flonnie Edrington attended the funeral of Mrs. Daisy Lindsey at Oakland Baptist Church, Gallatin County, on Sunday afternoon. We extend our sympathy to the boys and the other relatives in the loss of their loved one.

Mr. and Mrs. Winfred Swearingin and children spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. Allie Chandler.

Wedding bells will be ringing in our little town again soon.

Mrs. Tilda Hocker and another woman from Berea, spent Friday night and Saturday night with her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Robinson, and children.
