Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Reporter

The Senior Citizens met at the Brucewood Church, Tuesday, Oct. 10.

While several who had been with us previously were absent, but with a few new faces, the attendance was about the same.

Several of the ladies had brought rolls or coffee cake and all were delicious. Since Hilda Griffith, our chairman, had not returned from her European trip, Dorothy Ballinger conducted the business part of the program.

Mrs. Carouthers from the Covington office, gave us some quite interesting ideas on handicrafts, showing how those things too good to discard could still be made attractive and useful.

Among those enjoying the social morning were: Mesdames Leontine Stephens, Georgia Rapp, Marie Rich, Fredia McKenzie, Julia Dom, Elota Butler, Alma Yates, Ethel Gabbard M. Kick, Ruth Kick, Alice Donnan, Chalmers Ballinger, Flossie Newsom, Elizabeth Egger, Lillie Massman, John Bruce, Leslie Frazier, Kenneth Galloway, Stella Lloyd, Ila Hughes and Francys Keeney.

The community was shocked when they heard on Wednesday that Mrs. Irene Wolke had passed away on Tuesday evening.

She had expected to come home on Wednesday. She leaves her husband, Wilfred; two sons, Rev. Irwin Wolke and John Wolke; one daughter, Georgia Schoburg, and four grandchildren; also several brothers and sisters. Sympathy is extended to the family.
